Please include your name, age, and address, though we will gladly withhold that information upon request.

Dear Little Mermail,

THE LITTLE MERMAID comic books are my favorite stories! I like to play Little Mermaid. I'm Ariel, my mommy is Flounder and my daddy is King Triton. He's helping me write this letter. I was Ariel for Halloween! I like Aunt Crustacea, but how could she pour tea under the water? My mom would like to know the names of all of Ariel's sisters!

Clare Tilton, age 3 1/2
Ridgewood, NJ

We're forever delighted to have fans of all ages, Clare! Even mermaids

Dear Little Mermail,

I would like to congratulate you for a job well done! I continuously get THE LITTLE MERMAID each month and I must tell you that I become more impressed with each issue! Being an art student, I realize the time and effort that goes into creating such a great series. I do have one question. How do your artists get Ariel, and all of her pals, to look right on model? I feel I should tell you that you have found quite a catch with your penciler, Walter Carzon! Good luck to you!

Maggie Walsh, age 20
Seattle, WA

any mistakes we may have overlooked, and we end up with the wonderful comic book you read each month!

Dear Little Mermail,

I love THE LITTLE MERMAID! I think you should keep them coming and fast! I have TLM #'s 1-4. I've got such high hopes for THE LITTLE MERMAID #5!

Sirbhan Henderson, age 8
Brockton, MA

We're swimming as fast as we can, Sirbhan! While you're finning through this very issue, we're fishing up new ideas. It's not an easy job living up to the hopes and expectations of our Disney fans, but we have the utmost confidence that THE LITTLE MERMAID #5 and all upcoming issues of TLM will blow you out of the water!

Dear Friends,

I just got THE LITTLE MERMAID #5. It just keeps getting better! I like the fact that this issue was pretty much all comedy. Ariel slugging the Lobster Mobster and Ariel in jail. Gotta love it! I am still chuckling over it! Thanks for printing my previous letter. I'm impressed by your fan Terry Richards who has seen The Little Mermaid movie 500 times. I'm only up to 80 or so, but I can't watch it that often. Too much of a good thing and all. Also, I trust you'll give your readers notice when the trade paperback is due out!

Ed Rudnicki
Wharton, NJ

enjoy tea time, whether under the sea or on the shore! Ariel's 6 sisters are named Aquata, Andrina, Arista, Attina, Adella and Alana! Dads are always kings in the eyes of their daughters, and Moms often wear haloes instead of fins!

Thanks so much for the compliments, Maggie! Walter Carzon's beautiful art work hooks us every time, too! Once our pencilers have finished drawing an issue, we send it to the talented merfolk at Disney. They perfect

Dear Little Mermaid,

I especially liked THE LITTLE MERMAID #3! The Seaclops parts were my favorite. Hope you publish more soon.

Matthew Hoffman, age 6
Wallingford, CT

Funny you should ask for more of THE LITTLE MERMAID, Matthew! Because every month Marvel publishes more of Ariel's adventures down where life is the bubbles! To guarantee you don't miss a single issue, you may want to become a subscriber! Simply fill out the subscription form in this very issue and mail it in. For those of you under 18, be sure to check with a parent or an adult first!

Trivia Question:

Ariel discovers a precious treasure while exploring a sunken shipwreck with Flounder.

What did she find and what does she use it for?!

Write to us if you know the answer!

Seems there are a lot of people impressed by our fan Terry Richards for sea-ing The Little Mermaid 500 times! But no matter how little or how often our Disney followers watch our fair-finned friend, there's room on the ocean floor for all! We wouldn't dream of letting our followers down, Ed. THE LITTLE MERMAID reprint trade paperback will be floating onto the shelves in February '95. Fish for it, then!

Dear Hildy & Lisa,

I just finished reading THE LITTLE MERMAID #1-5. They were great! Nice job! I am the biggest Mermaid collector. I have just about everything and with a monthly comic book, it gives me something to look forward to collecting and receiving. In TLM #5 a fan wrote to you and said he had seen The Little Mermaid movie 500 times. Well, guess what? I've seen it 501 times and I'm still watching!

Sheryl Olivolo, age 21 1/2
Everett, MA

Looks like we've captured you hook, line and sinker, Sheryl! You and Terry Richards must be true blue Mermaid fans. It always makes us feel squishy inside to know we give our fans that something extra special each month.

Dear Little Mermail,

My name is Sadie Martin and I am 9 years old. I loved THE LITTLE MERMAID #2! It was awesome. I loved the colorful pictures too, they looked so real. I especially liked the story written by Martin Pasko. Always keep up the good work! Good luck on your next issue!

Sadie Martin, age 9
Broken Arrow, OK

Nice to have you aboard, Sadie! In addition to Martin Pasko's fin-nominal storyline, Ariel and her friends sang and swam through the pages of TLM #2 with the art of pencilers Bill Fugate and Cosme Quartieri, inker Dave Hunt, and the illumination of Ben Sean's color palette!

NEXT MONTH:

"One With The Waves" - After returning home from his trip, King Triton brings Ariel a necklace she doesn't want or like! When she accidentally loses it, all of the kingdom leaves no clam unturned searching for it. Is the necklace lost forever? Or will Ariel find her missing "treasure"?!

ALSO THIS MONTH:

Disney's Beauty and the Beast

"LoveTales" - It's snowing and Chip wants to go out to play! Chip wants Belle to help him build a snowman! But Belle becomes concerned when flurries turn to raging snowstorm and they can't even see the castle! Back in the village, Gaston studies up on his latest scheme to get Belle to walk down the aisle!

Disney's Aladdin

"The Mysterious Amulet" - Aladdin travels back in time to find the answers to his past! Along the way, Aladdin meets up with an ex-thief named Zena, who saves his life and an instant friendship is formed. Can Aladdin and Zena find Aladdin's origins, or will they remain a mystery?!

Disney's The Disney Afternoon

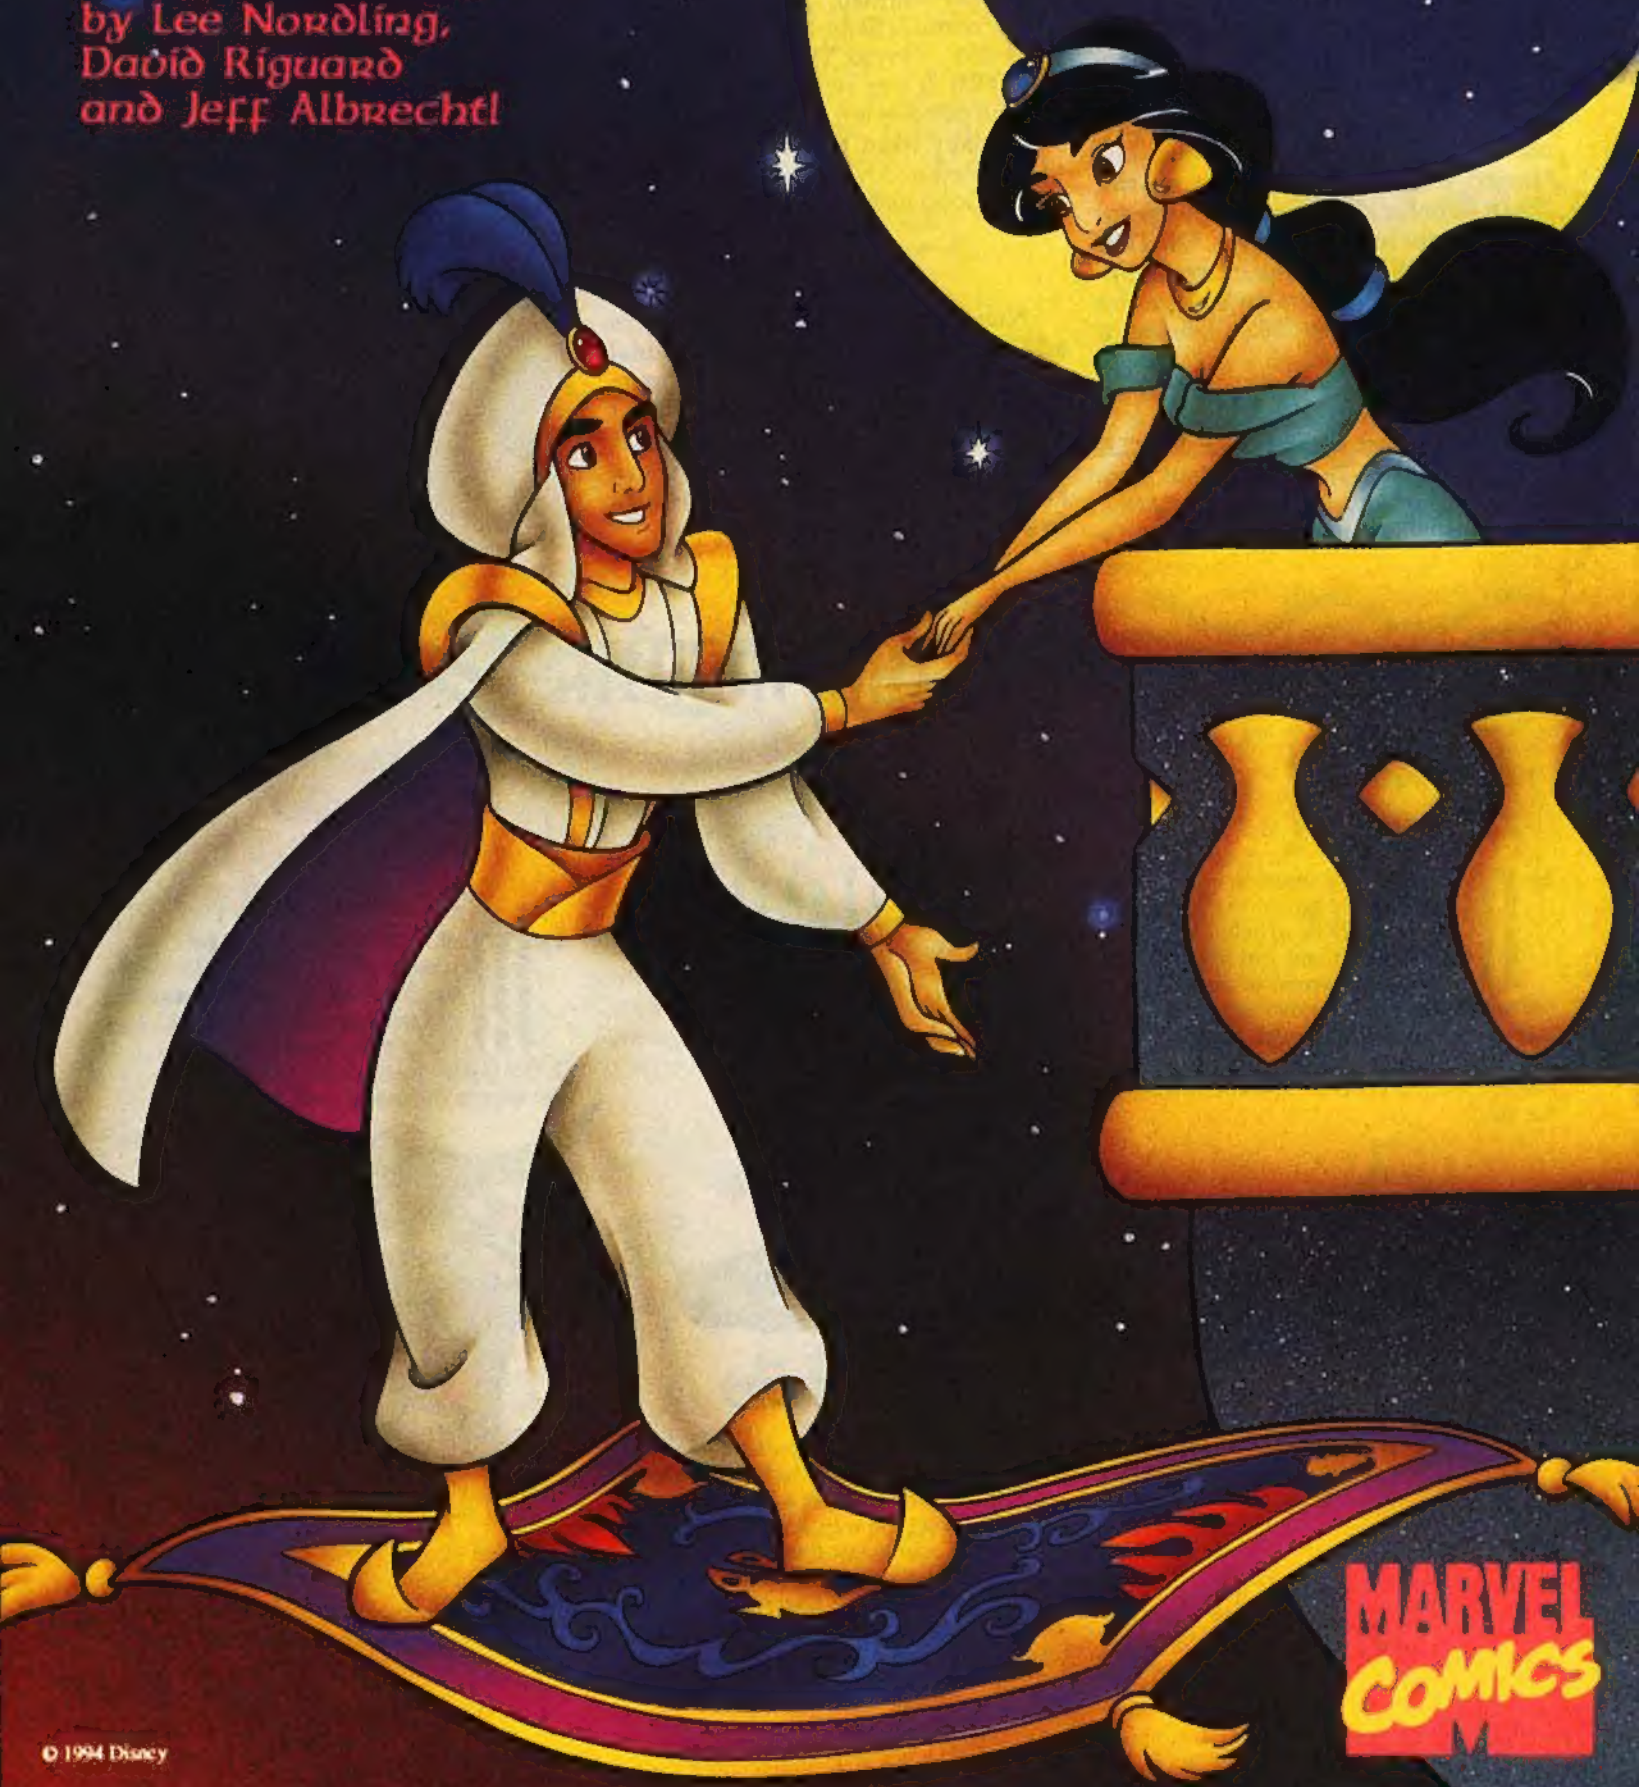

"Mole Mania" - There's a spy sneaking around SHUSH! Could it be the menacing mole or Darkwing Duck himself? Don't miss the dauntless Darkwing trying to prove his innocence and expose the true traitor!
